What we worked on last week:

- The district leadership team and Board convened to review and discuss district areas of focus and goals.
- Our goal areas continue to be centered on four distinct pillars of focus:
 - student-centered instruction
 - wellness & safety
 - college, career and life ready
 - equity and inclusion

What's next:

- An action item regarding full school reopenings will be voted on by the board at the December 14 meeting.
- Continuing implementation of RSVL Academy.

Challenges ahead:

- The unknowns related to the COVID-19 pandemic remain our biggest challenge, which we are committed to facing together with unity and adaptability. If and when any government or health updates impact the school district, we will communicate immediately.

Health updates:

- The RJUHSD COVID-19 Dashboard is updated Monday afternoons and includes all data from all schools regarding positive cases for staff and students.

Great news:

- It remains our top priority to continue serving high quality education to all of our students.
- Welcome our two new board members, Heidi Hall and Pete Constant, who join Scott Huber, Andrew Tagg and re-elected board member Julia Hirota.
