

LCUSD @

WELCOME BACK!

For the beginning of the 20-21 school year, we are re-imagining distance learning and building a strong virtual community, based on the 3 hallmarks of LCUSD's success:

Student, Families, Teachers, & Staff Safety & Health

Personal Growth & Academic Excellence

Social-Emotional Well-Being

TK-6

7-12

What to expect

- At home bell schedules with daily live instruction and learning experiences
- Minimum of 155 minutes per day of instruction and interaction
- Weekly feedback on student progress
- Art, music, computer, and library enrichment activities
- PE activities
- Spanish and GATE (depending upon qualifications)
- Counseling and special education services

- At home bell schedule for daily live meetings with teachers and peers
- Scheduled office hours each day for review and questions
- Uniform learning platform among courses
- 240 minutes of daily instruction and experiences
- Weekly feedback on projects and assignments
- Counseling services and Special education support
- Virtual and/or in person small group experiences with teachers and peers